

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and is blatant electioneering by a corporate media giant which is clearly against federal election law. By its unlawful exploitation of public air waves, it undermines ethical journalism and the very foundation of our precious democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
